NORA MAUDE WHEELER
(1906)

BILLINGSLEY---Mrs. J. J. Billingsley died at a local hospital last evening from peritonitis. The body was shipped to Caldwell for burial by Fry & Summers. Mrs. Billingsley was an old-time resident of Caldwell. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

The Idaho Statesman April 15, 1912

Nora "Maude" first married James Madison Wright. He was a ferryman on the Snake River. They had four children: Robert S., Neil M., Nora and Laura. He died as the result of a kick from a horse. Maude then married the "hired man" Jacob J Billingsley. They had two daughters: Gertrude and Mary Elizabeth. Maude died in April 1912 and Jake followed in January 1913. The children were split up among the family members to be raised. In the 1920 census the two youngest girls were living with a teachers family. I understand they were eventually adopted by others. I know that Gertrude stayed "local" because I have my Grandmother's diary and they visited Gertrude on a vacation in 1937. She was living in Washington state.

Maude was a very beautiful woman.

I am the granddaughter of Robert.
